Lafuente

SINCE 1942

Lafuente Group is a 100% Spanish company that has been dedicated to the production of cheese and dairy products for over eighty years, marked by hard work, care, and commitment.
Quesería Lafuente, located in Heras (Cantabria), was the first company in the group. It was founded by Agustín Lafuente and María Llano in León (Spain) in the 1940s. The company later moved to Galicia and finally settled in Cantabria in 1958.
In 2009, Arriondas plant (Asturias), purchased from Mantequerías Arias, became part of Lafuente Group.
In 2015, Lafuente Group acquired Central Quesera Montesinos, specialized in goat cheese, with a production facility in Jumilla (Murcia) dating back to 1978. This acquisition positioned the company as a benchmark in the dairy world.
In 2024, Lafuente Group acquired Spanish Cheese, a company based in Albacete and specialized in sheep and PDO Manchego cheese.
Lafuente Group offers a wide range of cheese varieties and formats, enabling us to supply not only retail chains but also hospitality, catering, and foodservice distribution channels. Thanks to this versatility, we are currently present in over forty countries across all five continents.
